Association Book Exhibit - ASIL

"104th American Society of International Law Annual Meeting"

The Ritz Carlton • Washington, DC

March 24-27, 2010

Registration Deadline: Mar. 2, 2010

Books Due Deadline: Mar. 9, 2010

(see Submission Instructions below)

The ASIL Audience

It's one of the busier meetings we cover and interest in the books is always intense. This year's theme: "International Law in a Time of Change". Plenty of the most prestigious legal publishers have extensive displays of titles here. Big course adoption and library potential. Tremendous response from the many overseas attorneys and law students as well. Session topics include a whole array of areas involving international law and non-state actions such as:

- The Global Conflict over Genetic Resources
- An Imperial Security Council?
- Women in International Law
- The Paradox of American Power
- The Role & Record of Dispute Settlement Panels
- The World Trade Organization
- Human Security & Development
- Arbitration of Disputes Under Income Tax Treaties
- Theories for Managing Conflicts with Municipal Law

Over 1,600 persons interested in publications on international law, international economics and international relations attend this scholarly meeting. Visit <http://www.asil.org/> to learn more.
