Hyatt Regency Chicago • Chicago, IL

March 2 - 6, 2010

Registration Deadline: Feb. 3, 2010

Books Due Deadline: Feb. 10, 2010

(see Submission Instructions below)

The NASP Audience

The National Association of School Psychologists (NASP), a professional organization with more than 23,000 members, is recognized for its important input on national issues such as school violence prevention, social promotion, crisis intervention, and mental health services in schools.

More than 4,500 schools psychologists are expected to attend. They work in schools, community clinics, private practice, hospitals, and universities providing direct services to children and families as well as developing and implementing programs and conducting research. Their services range from individual assessment and learning interventions to behavior management and mental health counseling on problems such as depression, eating disorders, family problems, substance abuse, and suicide prevention. Visit <http://www.nasponline.org/conventions/index.aspx> to learn more.

Reach these key decision makers on classroom aides, supplies and equipment; testing materials and scales; textbooks, guides, and manuals; computer software packages; and educational films, videos, and more.

There is no need for you to attend the School Psychologists Association Book Exhibit serves as your representative and will:

- Arrange attractive display of all titles, most face-out.
- Distribute "Titles on Display" ordering bibliography to delegates visiting ABE.
- Encourage on-site orders.
- Provide (via email or mail) exhibit photo, summary sheet, and copy of Titles on Display promptly to each publisher.
