Association Book Exhibit - OAH

"Organization of American Historians ~ 2010 Annual Meeting"

Hilton Washington • Washington, DC

April 7 - 10, 2010

Registration Deadline: March 10, 2010

Books Due Deadline: March 17, 2010

(see Submission Instructions below)

The Association

As the largest professional association dedicated to the study of the American past, the Organization of American Historians promotes excellence in the scholarship, teaching, and presentation of American history, and encourages wide discussion of historical questions and equitable treatment of all practitioners of history.

The Meeting

The 2010 OAH offers a wide-ranging program that will highlight the culture and cultures of the United States. Presentations will cover the full chronological sweep of the rich thematic diversity that has come to characterize contemporary American history writing and teaching. Panelists include those teaching at universities, college, community colleges, and secondary schools, public historians, and independent scholars.

The Exhibition

The 2010 OAH Annual Meeting provides an opportunity for you to reach over 2,000 college and university professors, precollegiate teachers, public historians, museum staff, and other history professionals from across the country. OAH meeting attendees consistently rank the exhibit hall as one of the most important reasons for attending the conference. Visit <http://meetings.oah.org/> to learn more.

There is no need for you to attend the OAH.
