The Child Survivors of the Holocaust Audience

We have worked with this group since 2003 and it is one of the more inspiring projects we've ever undertaken. We were honored to be asked to again present our exhibit this year in Skokie. The program will feature distinguished speakers, panel discussions, workshops for Child Survivors, Spouses and Families, 2nd and 3rd Generations Members.

It has taken nearly a lifetime for the youngest survivors to speak of the tragedies and the losses endured. After decades of silence, this group has taken on the grave responsibility of attesting to the evil that was the Holocaust and has heralded and celebrated the goodness, kindness and compassion that spared a few. We are grateful to the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum for allowing thousands of visitors to learn about the miracle of children who survived in hiding.

Child Survivors who experienced the horrors of Nazi persecution - whether in hiding, on the run, in the woods or in concentration camps - will join in sharing the painful past and in discussing today's relevant issues. They ask our spouses, children and grandchildren to help us in celebrating the gift of our lives and in passing on our legacy.

Ours will be the only book exhibit here and as in past years, we expect a very enthusiastic response. Conference organizers have assured us of a maximally visible exhibit space at all times. Many authors/presenters will be represented here so we know that this exhibit will be busy and will be a prime focal point of conference activity. Rarely has a group extended so many advance courtesies to us in an effort to assist in creating the largest and most comprehensive collection of books/journals possible.

There is no need for you to attend Holocaust / Family. Association Book Exhibit serves as your representative and we will:

- Arrange attractive display of all titles, most face-out.
- Distribute "Titles on Display" ordering bibliography to delegates visiting ABE.
- Encourage on-site orders.
- Provide (via email) exhibit photo, summary sheet, and copy of Titles on Display to each participating publisher.
